CAN'T DO THE WORK

It's too much to try to work every day against a constant, dull backache, or sudden darting pain in the small of the back. Be rid of it. Try Doan's Kidney Pills. Your neighbors recommend them. Ask your neighbor.

Jack Blankenship, foreman Construction Co., Plumb St., Louisa, says: "I have had the best of results through the use of Doan's Kidney Pills and can't recommend them too highly. I have a lot of exposure while on duty as foreman of a construction company and hoisting engines, together with the jarring, is what had a tendency to bring on my kidney trouble. There were times I had to give up work and go home and stay there, as I was just down with my back. Sharp, shooting pains darted all through my back and kidneys and the kidney secretions passed irregularly, containing a sandy sediment. I was in bad shape generally until I went to the Louisa Drug Store Co., and got three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills. I began using this medicine and soon got over the trouble. Doan's fixed me up in good shape and I have never been bothered since."

FUNNY THINGS

"Don't you wish you was a bird, Jimmy, and could fly 'way up in the sky?" mused little Jean dreamily. "Now," sneered Jimmy. "I'd rather be an elephant and squirt water through my nose."—Exchange.

Johnny: "What makes the new baby at your house cry so much, Tommy?" Tommy: "It don't cry so very much—and, anyway, if all our teeth were out, our hair off, and your legs so weak you couldn't stand on them, I guess you'd feel like crying yourself."—Exchange.

"Sarah," said her mistress during the dinner hour, "will you go down to the basement and get the cat?" Sarah departed, and a few minutes later the family heard a great shoaling and scampering of feet. Shortly after Sarah came breathlessly into the dining room and said to her astonished mistress, "They're up, mum." "What are up?" "The cats, mum."—Youth's Companion.

"So you wish to leave to get married, Mary? I hope you have given the matter serious consideration." "O, I have sir," was the earnest reply. "I have been to two fortune tellers and a clairvoyant, and looked in a sign book, and dreamed on a lock of his hair, and have been to one of those astrologers, and to a medium, and they all tell me to go ahead, sir. I ain't one to marry reckless like, sir."—Household Words.

"Willie," said his mother. "I wish you would run across the street and see how old Mrs. Brown is this morning." A few minutes later little Willie returned.

"Ma," said he, "Missus Brown said for me to tell ye it ain't none of your business how old she is."
